Job Description

Vintmark Travel Agency in Canada is currently seeking talented salespeople to join their team in Qatar. As a Sales Person, you will be responsible for promoting enticing travel packages and services, catering to the diverse needs of our clients. Your primary focus will be on delivering exceptional customer service, ensuring satisfaction throughout their travel experiences. We're looking for individuals with a robust sales background, outstanding communication abilities, and a genuine passion for the travel industry. This role presents an exciting opportunity to excel in a dynamic, customer-centric setting, with competitive compensation on offer. If you're dedicated to delivering unparalleled service and crafting unforgettable travel journeys for clients, we want to hear from you!

Education & Experience

Sales personnel in Qatar are typically expected to meet the following qualifications and experience criteria: Qualifications include a high school diploma or equivalent. While additional certifications or training in sales techniques can be advantageous, they're not mandatory. Experience-wise, candidates should ideally have previous sales experience, whether in retail, marketing, or related fields. Familiarity with customer service is valued as it demonstrates the ability to engage effectively with clients. Possessing any relevant licenses or certifications, such as those related to sales or customer relations, may also be beneficial. These criteria ensure that salespeople are equipped to handle their roles efficiently, prioritizing customer satisfaction and professionalism.

Must Have

Vintmark Travel Agency in Australia seeks Security Guards with: 1. Valid License: Essential for legal compliance. 2. Clear Background: Ensures reliability and trustworthiness. 3. Effective Communication: Crucial for client interaction and a welcoming atmosphere. 4. Sharp Observation: Ability to detect security threats. 5. Physical Fitness: Needed for emergency response. These criteria are vital for maintaining safety and satisfaction.
