Job Description

Waiters Qatar is currently seeking enthusiastic individuals to join their team in promoting travel packages and services to clients. As a salesperson, your role will involve ensuring clients' needs are met throughout their journey and providing exceptional customer service. The ideal candidates should possess a strong sales background, excellent communication skills, and a genuine passion for the travel industry. This position offers competitive compensation and the opportunity to excel in a dynamic, customer-centric environment. If you are committed to delivering outstanding service and creating unforgettable travel experiences, we encourage you to apply.

Education & Experience

For the waiter position at Waiters Australia, the qualifications and experience typically sought include: Education: A high school diploma or equivalent is typically required. While not mandatory, additional training or certification in hospitality or food service could be beneficial. Experience: Candidates should ideally have prior experience working as a waiter or in a similar customer-facing role within the hospitality industry. Experience in providing excellent customer service is highly valued, as it demonstrates the ability to handle various customer interactions with ease and professionalism. Language Skills: Proficiency in Polish is usually required, and fluency in English or other languages may be advantageous, especially in tourist-heavy areas. Certifications: While not always mandatory, certifications in food handling or safety may be preferred. These qualifications ensure that the waiters are well-prepared to meet the demands of the job, focusing on delivering exceptional service and creating a positive dining experience for customers.
